

Program Partnerships

Bissell Centre: Creative writing classes.

Hope Mission: Reading & writing literacy classes.

Ambrose Place: English literacy program with community members .

Edmonton Public Library:

Highlands: Weekly Creative Writing Towards Literacy class.(Tutoring space at numerous other branches.)

UofA Community Service Learning program: Weekly Humanities 101 class (non-credit).

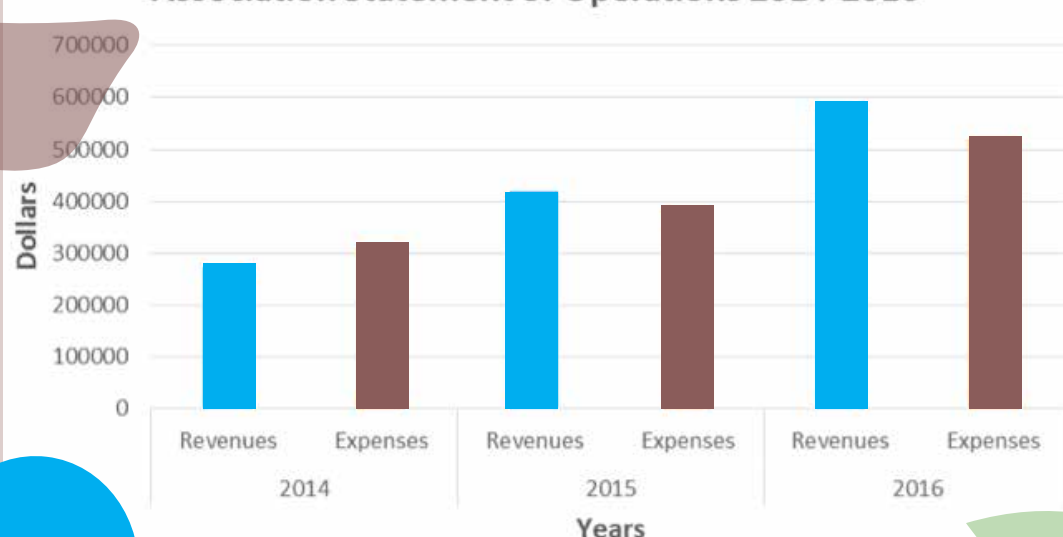

UofA Department of English and Film Studies: Weekly Creative Writing Towards Literacy class (non-credit).

Senior Citizen Opportunity Neighborhood Association (SCONA): Weekly creative writing class.

Cerebral Palsy (CP): Host site for weekly ComputAbilities program.

Association Statement of Operations 2014-2016

Total Volunteer Hours:

2850

How many volunteers?

135

2016 Funding Sources

In 2016, the Learning Centre Literacy Association provided the following literacy/numeracy and related adult educational programs:

- 1 Developing Reading and Writing for Adults
- 2 Adult Math/ Numeracy
- 3 Creative Writing for Adults
- 4 Basic Foundational Computer Skills
- 5 Individual Adult Tutoring
- 6 Creative Writing Towards Literacy Program
- 7 Francophone Transitional Literacy Program
- 8 Literacy Outreach towards Literacy (LOTE)
- 9 Building Employment Skills for Youth (BESKY)

1. Alberta Advanced Education- Government of Alberta
2. Edmonton Community Adult Learning Association
3. AGLC – Alberta Casino Funding
4. Stollery Charitable Foundation
5. Alberta Culture –Community Initiatives Program & Francophone Secretariat
6. Edmonton Community Foundation
7. Government of Canada Skills Link
8. Soroptimist International Club of Edmonton
9. Community Service Learning (CSL) – UofA
10. Fleming & Friends – Montreal, Quebec, Canada
11. Edmonton Relators Community Foundation
12. Donate A Ride
13. Home Depot – Claireview Store
14. Many generous individual donations

Click here for more information.